RESOLVED: That the Clerk correspond with the above services for confirmation regarding Small Business Rate Relief for Canol Y Llan.

9.6 07/03/17 e-mail Jim Espley, Waste & Transport Manager, Denbighshire CC:-

The process for allowing Conwy residents to access Denbighshire waste sites has now been set up. As previously explained, as Denbighshire has no duty to accept waste from outside its county border we have had to set a fee of £7 per visit for non Denbighshire residents. Those wishing to use this service pre-pay for the visit by calling our customer services department on 01824 706100 who will take payment and explain the conditions. For info, the script that the customer services have is shown below.

Cllr Elwyn Jones expressed concern regarding the above decision and maintained it would inevitably lead to more fly-tipping in rural areas.

Cllr Dafydd Ifans stated that there was obviously an absence of co-operation between the two councils concerned.

RESOLVED: That the Clerk correspond with the two councils to express concern by Llansannan Community Council regarding the decision.

9.7 27/02/17. James Pierce, Buxted, East Sussex. Letter drawing the Council's attention to the 450th anniversaries of the crowning achievements of William Salesbury.
